SMITH ATTACKS DRY LAW IN ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

Rain Prevents Outdoor Ceremony; Colorado River Policy Stated and Republicans Assailed

The full text of Gov. Smith's address appears on Pages 6 and 7, Part I of this edition.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Aug. 22. (AP)—Forced by rain to scrap plans for an impressive outdoor ceremony tonight in the Assembly chamber, his political battleground of years ago, Gov. Smith, when he spoke from the rostrum where he presided more than a decade ago over one branch of the New York Legislature, the party's new leader made known to the nation his stand on public questions of the day.

With the words of his acceptance speech carried far and wide by radio the Governor pledged himself to vigorous enforcement of the prohibition law, but announced that he favors a change in the Eighteenth Amendment as well as the Volstead law to give States, by popular referendum, the right to sell intoxicating liquors.

Calling attention to the Canadian system of handling liquor sales, he asserted that he never will countenance a return of the saloon and advocated instead sale of intoxicants by State agencies.

Repeatedly interrupted by applause from the crowd, which had squeezed into the chamber, Gov. Smith promised the farmers sympathetic consideration of their problem and reiterated that, if elected, he will seek the best possible counsel in framing a relief program.

REPUBLICANS ASSAILED He assailed the Republican administration, on various scores, among them the Nicaragua and the Mexican policy; pledged himself to work to end wars, favor public ownership and control of water power; declared neither he nor the Democratic party intend to upend business by radically changing tariff schedules, and announced that while he is for restricted immigration, he does not favor requirements which cause families hardships or restrictions based on a census thirty-eight years old.

Instead of a tremendous throng standing within sight as he delivered his carefully prepared speech, as had been expected had the ceremony been carried out at the foot of the east steps to the Capitol, the Governor's immediate audience numbered less than 200.

That was all the Assembly chamber could hold, and it was with difficulty that State troops kept others from storming the doors.

LUCK FAILS HIM But the rearranged radio hookup, undisturbed by the last minute change in plans, carried his message throughout the land and across international boundaries.

Up with him in the last minute Smith, who has been told he is "lucky" when it comes to getting good weather for an important event, had hoped that it would be possible to go through with arrangements for an outdoor notification. All day it had been raining steadily, and when skies failed to clear on the eve of the ceremony, he was forced to shift the scene to his old political stamping ground.

A battalion of workmen had worked at top speed to transform the chamber for the event. Seats of the Assemblymen on the floor were taken out, and the open given over to tables for 300 newspaper men, who were wedged in almost too closely to each other to work.

RADIO APPARATUS hurriedly was placed in position. Photographers and cameramen took up stations in the galleries and in front of the standing throng which was massed in the rear and to the sides of the chamber.

As the Governor, who was given an ovation when he entered the chamber, spoke, his running mate, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, sat at his right. Directly behind him was John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and to his left was Senator Field of Nevada, chairman of the notification committee.

FAMILY PRESENT Just below the speaker's rostrum were Mrs. Smith and members of the family—Emily with her husband, Maj. John A. Warner, superintendent of the State police; young "Al" as his father calls him, and his wife; Arthur and his wife; Francis J. Quillman of New York, and other country friends.

GOEBEL TURNED BACK BY STORM CURTIS FIELD (N. Y.) Aug. 22. (AP)—Art Goebel, transcontinental aviator, returned safely to Curtis Field shortly before 3 p.m. today after having tried unsuccessfully to reach Hartford, Ct., where his plane, the Yankee Doodle, was to have been overhauled.

Goebel was accompanied by Harry Tucker, his companion on the flight from Los Angeles. "We flew for a couple of hours," said Goebel. "It was raining hard and the fog was pretty thick. We couldn't identify any of the towns we passed and after covering a lot of country I decided we'd better come back."

VANDALS INSULT PETER PAN LONDON, Aug. 22. (AP)—The children of London are deeply resentful over the indignity inflicted on one of their dearest friends—the statue of Peter Pan in Kensington Gardens, which during the night was tarred and feathered by unidentified vandals. The youngsters who daily gather with their nurses and school-teachers about the figure of James Barrie's immortal boy hero wept upon seeing the bronze body of their friend in unbecoming tar-and-feather garb.

When at 9 o'clock last night some of Peter Pan's young acquaintances said good-by to him he was in his usual position atop the rugged tree trunk around the base of which tiny fairies, rabbits and mice peep shyly in response to the call of Peter's pipes.

RELIEF EXTENDED When they returned this morning to see good morning to him he was hardly recognizable. Later, when park keepers endeavored to remove Peter's ugly covering, the children applauded.

The statue probably shares with the Statue of Liberty the honor of being the most noted monument in the world. It was modeled in 1912 by the late Sir George Frampton, president of the Royal Society of SCULPTORS. Inspired by Barrie's story, "Peter Pan in Kensington Gardens," the statue is situated within a story's distance of the pond and broad walk which Barrie immortalized.

DETECTIVES AT WORK Among the host of mothers, nurses and teachers who take children to the statue to illustrate the famous story is Lady Farnham, who has become known as "Lady Pan" because each Saturday she meets a group of children in the shadow of the statue and tells them nature lore stories.

Scotland Yard has been called in to aid the local police in running down the tar and feather perpetrator. No serious damage was done to the statue and after a thorough cleaning no trace will be left of the outrage.

Will Rogers Remarks: FLAGSTAFF (Ariz.) Aug. 22.—(To the Editor of the Times:—) I would like to hear Al's speech tonight but my boys and I will be up to the Hopi snake dance. Al used bad judgment in picking a night for the tiger to howl when the snakes were dancing. This dance is an old Indian custom, almost as old as some of the gods that Al will use tonight about lower taxes and better conditions for the poor man and relief for the farmer. Hoover ought to get all the votes at the dance for that is no place for a wet. Here's hoping, Al, the static don't grab you. Yours, WILL.

NEEDS TOLD TO HOOVER Candidate Meets With Farmers After Day of Relaxation Nominee Burrows Deep Into Relief Plan Scores Visit Party's Chief; Iowa's Campaign Will Open Tonight CEDAR RAPIDS (Iowa) Aug. 22. (AP)—Assuming again the mantle of Republican leadership after a day of relaxation among boyhood friends, Herbert Hoover today burrowed into what he considers the nation's greatest economic problem—that of farm relief. In a series of conferences with agricultural leaders and editors of farm papers, the Presidential candidate outlined again his method of tackling the task, going more into detail of some of its phases. What he said, however, in the closed conference rooms was withheld from publication with the explanation that at some later time in the campaign he will make a public expression.

LUNCH WITH EDITORS The principal conferences were with editors of agricultural publications with whom the Republican candidate had lunch and representatives of the Iowa farmers. Hoover also was visited at his temporary residence at Brookmore, by more than 100 editors and publishers of daily and weekly Iowa newspapers. He told these that reports such as he had received in Iowa were very "heartening." While some of the Republican leaders now in Cedar Rapids are optimistic as to the situation in the corn belt as it affects the political outlook, others like Senators Nye of North Dakota and Watson of Indiana are inclined to be somewhat pessimistic. They said the present drop in wheat prices has caused much disturbance.

OLD FOES MAKE UP Watson, who was one of the chief opponents of Hoover in the presidential campaign, arrived early this morning and formally will open the Iowa campaign tomorrow night at a political rally which will be presided over by Senator Brookhart, Iowa's Republican independent, who is one of the foremost advocates of the election of the party candidate Brookhart and Watson have long been on opposite sides of the fence in party matters. Hoover arrived here in the middle of the forenoon for a two-day stay after spending a day in renewing childhood associations at West Branch, the little town where he was born. He motored from West Branch to Cedar Rapids, stopping en route to visit the old Iowa State Capitol at Iowa City. The structure now is serving as the administrative building for the State University of Iowa. The motor caravan was joined at Iowa City by hundreds of well-wishers, after which it proceeded to Cedar Rapids, to pass along the principal residential and business streets to Brookmore, the estate of Mr. George B. Douglas.

REVIEW PARADE There the G. O. P. leader and Mr. Hoover reviewed a parade of hundreds of Iowa boys and girls, including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, members of the Young Men's Christian Association and of the Young Women's Christian Association. These formalities of arrival over the candidate turned to the round of conferences he had mapped out for considering agricultural relief. Late this afternoon he conferred with a group of farm-belt Congressmen and Senators before listening in on the radio to the acceptance speech of Gov. Smith, his Democratic opponent. Mr. Hoover received an ovation when he showed himself to 200 Iowa newspaper men assembled at luncheon to listen to Senator Capper of Kansas. He made no speech, however. The nominee merely thanked the editors for their courteous welcome and said he expected to see them later in the day to "discuss such things as may need to be discussed."

CAPPER'S SPEECH Senator Capper told the Iowa editors that Kansas will be for Hoover and Curtis by 250,000 majority and that 85 per cent of the woman vote will be for him in that State. He added, too, that he expected Oklahoma to give the ticket a "good strong majority." Part of the Senator's address was a tribute to his fellow Senator and close neighbor, the nominee for Vice-President.

Verne Marshall, managing editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette, Republican, was chairman of the editors' meeting. Hoover spoke briefly to the editors of agricultural papers during the luncheon conference, but it was understood in advance that his remarks were not to be published. The conference was perfunctory in nature as those he has held in the Department.

This dance is an old Indian custom, almost as old as some of the gods that Al will use tonight about lower taxes and better conditions for the poor man and relief for the farmer. Hoover ought to get all the votes at the dance for that is no place for a wet. Here's hoping, Al, the static don't grab you. Yours, WILL.

NEEDS TOLD TO HOOVER Candidate Meets With Farmers After Day of Relaxation Nominee Burrows Deep Into Relief Plan Scores Visit Party's Chief; Iowa's Campaign Will Open Tonight CEDAR RAPIDS (Iowa) Aug. 22. (AP)—Assuming again the mantle of Republican leadership after a day of relaxation among boyhood friends, Herbert Hoover today burrowed into what he considers the nation's greatest economic problem—that of farm relief. In a series of conferences with agricultural leaders and editors of farm papers, the Presidential candidate outlined again his method of tackling the task, going more into detail of some of its phases. What he said, however, in the closed conference rooms was withheld from publication with the explanation that at some later time in the campaign he will make a public expression.

LUNCH WITH EDITORS The principal conferences were with editors of agricultural publications with whom the Republican candidate had lunch and representatives of the Iowa farmers. Hoover also was visited at his temporary residence at Brookmore, by more than 100 editors and publishers of daily and weekly Iowa newspapers. He told these that reports such as he had received in Iowa were very "heartening." While some of the Republican leaders now in Cedar Rapids are optimistic as to the situation in the corn belt as it affects the political outlook, others like Senators Nye of North Dakota and Watson of Indiana are inclined to be somewhat pessimistic. They said the present drop in wheat prices has caused much disturbance.

OLD FOES MAKE UP Watson, who was one of the chief opponents of Hoover in the presidential campaign, arrived early this morning and formally will open the Iowa campaign tomorrow night at a political rally which will be presided over by Senator Brookhart, Iowa's Republican independent, who is one of the foremost advocates of the election of the party candidate Brookhart and Watson have long been on opposite sides of the fence in party matters. Hoover arrived here in the middle of the forenoon for a two-day stay after spending a day in renewing childhood associations at West Branch, the little town where he was born. He motored from West Branch to Cedar Rapids, stopping en route to visit the old Iowa State Capitol at Iowa City. The structure now is serving as the administrative building for the State University of Iowa. The motor caravan was joined at Iowa City by hundreds of well-wishers, after which it proceeded to Cedar Rapids, to pass along the principal residential and business streets to Brookmore, the estate of Mr. George B. Douglas.

REVIEW PARADE There the G. O. P. leader and Mr. Hoover reviewed a parade of hundreds of Iowa boys and girls, including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, members of the Young Men's Christian Association and of the Young Women's Christian Association. These formalities of arrival over the candidate turned to the round of conferences he had mapped out for considering agricultural relief. Late this afternoon he conferred with a group of farm-belt Congressmen and Senators before listening in on the radio to the acceptance speech of Gov. Smith, his Democratic opponent. Mr. Hoover received an ovation when he showed himself to 200 Iowa newspaper men assembled at luncheon to listen to Senator Capper of Kansas. He made no speech, however. The nominee merely thanked the editors for their courteous welcome and said he expected to see them later in the day to "discuss such things as may need to be discussed."

CAPPER'S SPEECH Senator Capper told the Iowa editors that Kansas will be for Hoover and Curtis by 250,000 majority and that 85 per cent of the woman vote will be for him in that State. He added, too, that he expected Oklahoma to give the ticket a "good strong majority." Part of the Senator's address was a tribute to his fellow Senator and close neighbor, the nominee for Vice-President.

Verne Marshall, managing editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette, Republican, was chairman of the editors' meeting. Hoover spoke briefly to the editors of agricultural papers during the luncheon conference, but it was understood in advance that his remarks were not to be published. The conference was perfunctory in nature as those he has held in the Department.

STANDARD WARRANTY FOR PNEUMATIC CASINGS AND TUBES

"Every pneumatic tire of our manufacture bearing our name and serial number is warranted by us against defects in material and workmanship during the life of the tire to the extent that if any tire fails because of such defect, we will either repair the tire or make a reasonable allowance on the purchase of a new tire."

T

HIS broad warranty against tire defects, unlimited as to mileage or time, is the most constructive guarantee of service ever offered the public.

Indulgent
Director General, THE RUBBER INSTITUTE, Inc.

THE tire industry has taken great steps forward in the past decade.

Tire quality has been improved immeasurably; tire prices have been reduced to the lowest levels in history.

And now the industry has taken another great forward step.

The manufacturers of 95% of the tires made in the United States guarantee tires bearing their names and serial numbers against defects for the life of the tires.

What an improvement this is over the old days of the now out-worn "definite mileage guarantee."

The era of the mileage guarantee came to an end when users realized that good tires are made of rubber and cotton—not printed promises.

They discovered that "there are no miles in a bottle of ink."

They discovered that you cannot put mileage into tires by written guarantees—it must be built in. No mileage guarantee will hold the tread to the carcass;—nothing but craftsmanship does that.

They discovered that no mileage guarantee will toughen the rubber or strengthen the cotton cord:—only the know-how of experienced tire builders does that.

They discovered that no mileage guarantee will extend the life of a tire to its utmost capacity:—only good driving and care for your tires does that.

On the other hand, car owners found that the definite mileage guarantee had these failings—

- 1 It benefited the driver who misused his tires and misrepresented his mileage, at the cost of the honest and careful driver who did not abuse his tires, and who was truthful in stating his mileage, or honest in admitting he did not know his mileage.
- 2 It put a premium upon heedless driving by removing the penalty for traveling with tires under-inflated or wheels out of line.
- 3 Its cost was a buried expense that bore on the user of the tires without adding any commensurate value.

The first year following the elimination of the definite mileage guarantee over thirteen million dollars was saved by doing away with adjustments against neglect and abuse of the careless driver, and was put back into the product for the benefit of all drivers alike.

The industry simply converted non-productive cost into good sound rubber and cotton. Every user benefited equally; tire prices came down; tire quality went up. Today the American tire user is enjoying the lowest-cost tire miles in the history of the world.

The high quality of present day tires has made possible the prevailing standard tire warranty, extending over the life of the tire—the broadest and most constructive guarantee of service that can be written—a declaration that enables the manufacturers of over 95% of the production in the country to stand squarely behind the quality and serviceability of their products, as they wish to stand.

WATER TAX UP IN SAN DIEGO

Rate Raised to Overcome
Deficit in Revenues

Assessment Will Not Be Used Against Vacant Lots

Increase Complicates Service
Provided Other Towns

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 22.—To meet the deficit in city revenues caused by lower tax valuation, the Common Council today decided to increase water rates. The new charges, soon to go into effect, will be $1.50, a minimum rate, and 20 cents per 100 cubic feet of water used. There will be no assessment against vacant properties as proposed for the reason the City Attorney advised it would be illegal and the tax could not be enforced.

By raising the water rates the auditor informed the Council approximately $250,000 would be added to the city revenue for the year 1930, which would meet the deficit resulting from loss in taxes. The department heads will suffer few cuts, it was stated.

The Council today seemed satisfied with this report and authorized the City Attorney's office to prepare an ordinance fixing the tax levy at $2.00 for adoption next Monday.

Meanwhile the effect of higher rates for water furnished communities outside the city is to be investigated by the City Attorney. This involves the contract with the city of Coronado, where a much less rate is in force. The Councilmen said they did not propose to furnish Coronado or any other district outside of the city with water at a rate less than is paid in San Diego, if they could help it.

The Council's advice on increasing water rates and against the special tax assessment was furnished by Deputy City Attorney A. B. Deane. His stand was not satisfactory, however, to Councilman Dowell, who held that other cities are levying special taxes against vacant lots and he could see no reason why it should not be done in San Diego.

Contract Given to Airport for Flying Lessons

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 22.—Contracts to provide the first flying instructions for the Polytechnic school here which recently attracted wide attention by having its students built an airplane, have been awarded to the Chadbourne Dome Airport of Carpinteria and instruction will begin within ten days.

An $85,000 airport, being constructed here by the Union Oil Company will be used as a flying field. Lieut. Hollock Reese of the Chadbourne Dome field, will have charge of the flying. Hitherto the pupils in the Polytechnic school have received only ground instruction.

By this contract the Chadbourne Dome Company is given rights to operate flying schools in the three adjoining counties. Schools also have been established in Santa Maria, Lompoc and Ventura. Immediate plans to enlarge the staff of the Carpinteria company are under way as the addition of two additional planes have been ordered to augment the present equipment of five ships.

Flyer Purposely Smashes Plane

ONTARIO, Aug. 22.—In order to prove to his friends that he had not met death in an airplane crash, Ralph Vaughan, Ontario pilot, presented himself in person to his friends today and satisfied them that his demise had been exaggerated.

Thousands of persons at a southern flying field believed as that flying in Ontario did, that Vaughan had been killed in a crash. They saw his plane burst into a ball of fire, strike on one wing, turn a few flip-flops and settle over on its back, crushed and smashed. And they saw Vaughan clamber out and smile. Movie cameras clicked away, as the plane crash was part of the film drama in which Vaughan was providing the climax. He received a brand new ship, the wreckage of his old one, and a substantial check for his successful effort at wrecking the plane.

GLENDORA, Aug. 22.—Plans of the exhibit to be entered by the local Chamber of Commerce at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona, September 13 to 23, will be offered for approval at a special meeting of the fair committee on the evening of the 27th inst. at the City Hall, according to John L. S. Cooke, secretary.

The meeting will also mark the first for the newly elected secretary, Julius Jorgensen, who will assume his regular duties September 1. Jorgensen was appointed to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Cooke, who has been elected secretary of the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce.

J. D. Dean, publisher of one of the local papers, is chairman of the fair committee and others of the personnel include H. M. Lowson, John Bender, C. E. Groulender, Guy Whitte, C. W. Richardson, H. H. Loebe, William Dyer and G. D. Clegg.

FLYING BANDIT ARRESTED

Soldier Who Robbed Store in San Diego One Night and
By Use of Airplane Raided Another in El Paso
the Next Day, Becomes Military Prisoner

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 22.—Raymond C. Ellis, 22 years of age, asserted "flying bandit," who police say, performed the difficult task of perpetrating a robbery here one night and another in El Paso, Tex., on the following night, has been arrested and is being held as a military prisoner in the Rockwell Field prison, it was reported today.

Ellis, according to Detective Sergeant Kinney and Chief Chadwick, who caused his arrest, confessed today that he robbed a drug store at 1502 First street here on the 14th inst., obtaining $8. Two customers who were in the store during the hold-up, positively identified Ellis as the bandit, police said.

In his written confession, Ellis also told how he traveled by air to El Paso as a passenger aboard an army plane and while there, perpetrated a robbery which netted him approximately $50, officers declared. When searched, Ellis was found to have in his possession a newspaper clipping describing this robbery.

Ellis, who was characterized by police as the "flying bandit," is a soldier stationed at Rockwell Field. Police said he will face a general military court-martial for the two asserted robberies.

COLOR LINE HITS PAVING

Petitions in Sierra Madre Get Signatures for White
Cement or Black Asphalt Surfaces

SIERRA MADRE, Aug. 22.—Proposed improving of Central avenue is causing a heated battle between two factions here, one requesting black and the other white pavement, with the result that petitions are in circulation among the property owners of the improvement frontage.

The controversy had its inception on January 10, last, when the City Council voted to instruct a special engineer to confer with other cities concerned in the project as to the type of having preferred by them and at the same time expressed a preference for eight-inch pavement of cement concrete for that portion lying within the limits of Sierra Madre.

Reversing their former decision, the Councilmen augmented the confusion on May 23, when they voted to reconsider the previous action and instructed the engineer in charge to prepare open specifications for pavement of asphaltic concrete for the highway within the limits of Sierra Madre.

Since the Council's last move was taken, petitions have sprung to the foreground. It is said that the white pavement faction has signed up more than 5000 feet out of a total frontage of 17,000 feet.

The black pavement sponsors are reiterating their status in the case, but are likewise busy.

Bambaugh Freed in Manslaughter Case by Judge

GLENDALE, Aug. 22.—J. Elmer Bambaugh, 901 Chester Williams Building, Los Angeles, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Robert Scott, local contractor, on July 23, in an automobile crash, was exonerated here today by Judge P. H. Johnson, after whom Bambaugh was brought for a preliminary hearing, dismissed the case.

Evidence showed that at the intersection of Glen Oaks Boulevard and Alameda street, where the accident occurred, forty-mile speed was permissible. Bambaugh, before the law, while Alameda street, along which Scott was traveling in a southerly direction, had a fifteen-mile an hour intersection because of the presence of the Pacific Electric tracks and the inability of anyone approaching to see for 400 feet in either direction. Prior to the hearing Judge Lowe sent engineers to measure the intersection and to determine the exact rights of both parties involved in each crash. Evidence was presented showing that Bambaugh was traveling at approximately twenty-five miles an hour and that he was in the street intersection before Scott entered it.

Upland Woman Kills Herself

UPLAND, Aug. 22.—Choosing a moment when her husband was working in the garden and her daughter Grace was sleeping at an early hour today, Mrs. W. J. Aditt, 68 years of age, prominent in social circles here, took her own life by slashing her throat with a razor blade in the bathroom of her home at 148 Ready street. The body was found a short time later by her husband.

It was said Mrs. Aditt had grown despondent due to a recent illness and failure to recover successfully from an operation.

In addition to her husband and daughter, she leaves three sons, Roy of Illinois, Charles of Wisconsin, and Lynn of New Jersey.

DICKINSON WILL SUIT COMING UP

City of Pasadena Bequest
Attacked by Cousins

Curios, Birds, Home, Cash

Hearing Set to Start Soon in Superior Court

PASADENA, Aug. 22.—Whether or not this city will receive $45,000 in cash and valuable curios bequeathed under the will of the late Miss Emma E. Dickinson, is scheduled to be decided as the result of a hearing of the will contest suit which will be held beginning September 11 in Department Fourteen of the Superior Court.

The case is being brought by Lotie Parks Reed and Herbert Rowley, cousins of Miss Dickinson, who was a former Methodist missionary, against the city of Pasadena, the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holyoke College and Frank W. Moore, executor of the $750,000 estate.

Miss Dickinson left her property to be divided between the missionary society and college and later, a few days before her death, acceded to her will leaving her Arden Road home and her collection of talking birds to the city.

As the result of an understanding with the other heirs, Pasadena has agreed to accept $45,000 cash and valuable curios in lieu of the residence.

Two Men Injured in Gas Blast

Leaking Pipes Produces
Explosion in Compressor
Plant at Ventura Field

VENTURA, Aug. 22.—Joe Peters and Martin Person, Southern California Gas Company employees, were badly injured in a sudden burst of flames which occurred at the company's compressor plants in the Ventura-avenue oil field, about 3 o'clock this morning. They were rushed to the Big Sisters Hospital where it was said that the demands of second-degree burns about their faces and chests but should recover.

The damage done to the company property was not great, according to E. S. Cole, superintendent. It consisted chiefly of the burning of a wooden platform and the shattering of numerous glass windows in the two compressor plants which stand side by side. He estimated the damage at $3000.

The accident occurred when one of the gas pipes between the two compressor plants was leaking. The gas was immediately shut down and the engines stopped. The two compressor plants are only about ten feet apart, and the heat from the exhaust of the engines is believed to have ignited the escaping gas.

The leak at a distance of about forty feet when the ignited gas, caught in a draft between the two buildings, struck them in the face as they were about to close the discharge gate.

The gas supply was cut off for a few hours while repairs were being made and the gas of the Ventura Field Company was turned into the mains for use by the city.

Man Dies Under Wheels of Truck

GLENDALE, Aug. 22.—Frank Ortiz, 25 years of age of 118 West Anne street, Los Angeles, received injuries today that resulted in his death within a few minutes when he fell beneath the wheels of a truck at Cypress street and Prospect avenue as he tried to leap on board.

Louis Esquer, 1171 Concord street, Los Angeles, employed by Ramjak, Sattelo & Topich Construction Company, laying sewers in Acacia street, started down the incline at Cypress street with the truck, loaded with lumber, as he attempted to leap on board and slipped from the running board. As he fell he clutched at the gear-shift lever and threw the truck out of gear, causing Esquer to lose control of the machine. Ortiz fell beneath the right rear wheel and his head was crushed so badly that he died before he reached the hospital.

Detective Lieutenant Charles P. Blake and Detective G. D. Edgar, who investigated the case, notified the Lincoln Heights police and asked them to advise the people with whom Ortiz lived of his death. The body was taken to the L. G. Gorman Mortuary, where it will await an inquest.

Supervisors Talbot and Dinsmore strongly objected to forcing the health officer out of the department.

WEIR SET TO DRAIN COLORADO

Unless River Flow Gains
by Rains in Upper Basin,
Entire Stream to Be Used

EL CENTRO, Aug. 22.—Unless rains in the upper watershed increase the flow in the Colorado, Imperial Valley will be diverting the entire river through its intake into the valley within a few days, according to the statement of M. J. Dowd, Imperial Irrigation District engineer, today.

A brush and rock weir already has been installed across the channel just below Rockwood Heading. If it becomes necessary to use the entire discharge, this will be sealed with sand and silt pumped to the weir by dredges, making a watertight dam.

Dowd stated that there is no immediate occasion for alarm on the part of ranchers, but he requests that they place their water orders promptly and conserve the supply as much as possible.

Daily telegraphic reports from Grand Canyon indicate that the river discharge is falling steadily at that point, the discharge being 1900 second feet yesterday as compared with 12,000 feet on the tenth of the month. Due to increased acreage this season the demands for irrigation water are higher than usual, the present consumption being 6600 second feet daily.

A local automobile dealer reported to the police that he had sold the man a machine, and that a check was presented in payment. When sent to a Los Angeles bank for collection, the check was returned "no funds." It is stated that the man uses fictitious addresses. The checks are on local banks and on the Bank of Italy at San Francisco. A description states the man is aged 30 years, six feet and six inches in height, weighs about 145 pounds, slender build, black hair, dark brown eyes, smooth face and American.

GUESTS AT JAIL SHOW INCREASE

Sheriff Traeger Enlarges Activity as Host

Automobile Thefts Reveal Slight Decrease

Office Personnel Largest in Entire Nation

There was an increase of 11.6 per cent in prisoners booked at the County Jail during the fiscal year ending July 1, last, over the number booked during the previous fiscal year, according to the annual report of Sheriff Traeger made public yesterday. The total number of prisoners booked was 16,535. Of this number nearly 43 per cent, or more than 7,000, were less than 25 years of age, according to the report, and nearly half of this 43 per cent were under 20 years of age.

Separate investigations totaling 48,464 were made by deputy sheriffs and constables and 11,667 arrests were made in connection with these investigations.

Automobile thefts for the year reported were less than the previous year. This is the first time there has been a decrease in fourteen years. Auto thefts for the year just ended totaled 12,562, while for the year ending July 1, 1927, they were 13,976. This decrease is ascribed to the greater number of Sheriff's substations (there are now nine) and to closer co-operation with insurance companies and automobile clubs.

The personnel of the Sheriff's department increased from 657 as of July 1, 1927, to 700 as of July 1, 1928. This, according to the report, makes the Los Angeles County Sheriff's office the largest in the United States.

There was a total of 1,197,673 meals served in the County Jail during the year covered by the report and the average cost of each meal was a little over 8 1/2 cents.

Damages amounting to $10,000 for personal injuries are asked in the trial of the suit of Julia Vos against L. M. Klawiter, which began yesterday before Superior Judge McKinzie. The suit is based on an auto accident, which occurred at Highland and De Longpre avenues on January 21, last. The plaintiff asserts that Klawiter was driving recklessly when his car collided with one in which she was riding with her son, Charles Vos. In his answer the defendant denies he was driving recklessly and places the blame for the accident on young Vos.

HONOR FOR AMUNDSEN ANNOUNCED

Sculptor Completes His Clay Model of Bust to be Placed in City Park

Roald Amundsen, polar explorer, will achieve immortality in Los Angeles if plans of local Norwegians to place a bust of the explorer, completed yesterday by Finn Haakon Frolich, sculptor, in a city park are realized.

Final touches on the clay figure were completed last night by the sculptor and a composition cast will be made today, the latter to be taken to the Pacific Southwest Exposition in Long Beach.

Unveiling of the bust will take place Saturday with Capt. Hubert Wilkins, noted for his flight across the North Pole, officiating. Capt. Wilkins also is scheduled to make an address. Saturday has been set aside as Norwegian Day at the exposition.

Before a bronze cast can be made from the bust to be shown at Long Beach, a collection must be taken from Southern California Norwegians to finance the work, Frolich said. Negotiations then will be made to place the permanent figure in a park.

The bust is approximately six feet in height and was done by Frolich from photographs of the explorer. Polar bears, symbolical of the regions explored by Amundsen, and a coat of arms form the base of the bust. It was completed at Frolich's headquarters at 1041 North Sycamore avenue, Hollywood.

OIL TERMINAL PACT DELAYED

Harbor Department Unable to Get Agreement

Shippers Object to Location Board Proposes

Further Conferences Will Be Arranged

Efforts of the harbor department to reach an agreement with oil-shipping companies at the harbor on the location of an adequate terminal for all concerns to ship case oil have been unavailing, according to report of General Manager Cole yesterday. He asked the harbor department to express an opinion on a suitable site and Vice-President Crawford was delegated by President Allen to confer with the companies in an effort to reach an agreement.

Due to the expansion of the business of exporting case oil from Los Angeles Harbor, the present facilities at Berth 187, where the harbor department has $700,000 invested, are no longer ample. Selection of a permanent site and erection of facilities to handle present business and care for future growth have resulted in a number of conferences between Cole and the oil interests.

The harbor department favors locating the case-oil terminal at Berths 69 and 70, in the outer harbor, opposite the old cotton company, because a wharf can be built and facilities provided for $180,000. Steamship officials protest this site because of the surge and danger to berthed vessels, and the oil companies claim that the extra haul will cost them 1 cent a case more.

Cole argued that with the completion of the channel-widening program to 1000 feet now under way, the location would interfere with shipping no more than at any other point in the main channel.

OIL INTERESTS' VIEW

The oil interests favor locating the terminal at Berths 148 and 149, just outside the West Basin dike bridge. The harbor department suggested that if it provided all the facilities, including wharf, warehouse and conveyors, the shippers should protect the extra public investment by filing adequate repayment bonds. This did not meet approval of the oil interests. The cost, with berths for two vessels, was estimated at $380,000, compared to the $180,000 at the Outer Harbor, where the oil companies could be used as a case-oil warehouse.

Another plan suggested by the harbor department, according to Cole, is for the oil interests to form a consolidated organization for the erection of their own facilities on leased frontage, with the department constructing the necessary wharves, but the oil companies stated that such a procedure was impossible for competitive and other reasons.

LOW COST URGED

Cole said department officials are of the opinion that the Outer Harbor site appeared the most logical because of the low cost. The fact that in addition to wharf construction and modifications in the old compress-building there were no changes of importance necessary, should more than offset the extra trucking charge, he said. At this site, in case the site was abandoned at any time, the building could be used as a warehouse for other purposes, he declared.

Some solution of the problem is expected to be reached by more conferences between Commissioner Crawford and the oil companies.

'Road Hogs' Get Court Warning

Traffic Judge Gray yesterday in his court issued a warning to "road hogs" who refuse to yield the right of way to motorists behind them.

"The road hog is as much of a danger as any other reckless driver," declared Judge Gray. "He can expect a jail sentence from this court."

The judge sentenced Aldo E. Le Fevre, 37 North Vermont avenue, Glendale, to serve three days in jail, when testimony showed that he refused to yield the right of way, speeding was a car on his left, five to fifty-two miles an hour on Foothill Boulevard, when a car behind him sounded his horn. Le Fevre pleaded guilty, and also admitted that he has not yet received the operator's license, which he applied for.

"ON TRIAL" BEGUN

THREE JOIN CAST; WELLMAN FOR "TONG WAR"

By Grace Kingsley
Now is the time for all stage actors who have ambitions for the movies to sing psalms of praise because of the popularity of talking pictures.

Three important players were recruited yesterday for the Warner's Vitaphone production of the well-known stage play, "On Trial," according to an announcement issued yesterday by Darryl Zanuck.

Johnny Arthur, who has achieved tremendous popularity as the comedian of "The Desert Song," and who is considered one of the most original of stage and screen comedians, has been signed, and will relieve with his comedy the suspense and terrific drama of the story.

Franklin Pangborn, noted player of the stage and screen, has been engaged for a leading part in the picture, in which he will have the role of Trumbull. It is said that the tests made of Pangborn's voice reveal him as likely to make a complete success in sound films.

Fred Kelsey, who scored in "Tenderloin," and who formerly attracted much attention by his performance in "The Gorilla," will have another important part.

Actual filming of "On Trial" was started yesterday under the direction of Archie Mayo, with an all-star cast that includes Pauline Frederick, Bert Lytell, Lois Wilson, Holmes Herbert, Jason Robards, Richard Tucker, Mendell Darr, Edmund Breese and Edward Martindel.

Will Direct "Tong War"

William Wellman was yesterday assigned to the important job of directing "Tong War," a melodrama picture in which Wallace Beery is to play the white leader of the tonga. It was announced by B. F. Schulberg.

The director has just completed "Beggars of Life," from the story of hope life, and prior to that climbed to the stratosphere by way of "Wings" and "The Legion of the Condemned."

"Tong War" will go into production late in September, and, according to present indications, will be one of Paramount's outstanding features for the new 1934 season. Samuel Ornitz, author of "Heaven, Panch and Jowl," and other literary successes, wrote the story.

Aileen Pringle's New One

The world of motion-picture fans which has been waiting to see Aileen Pringle again on the screen, will be pleased to know that she has been cast as the Grand Duchess in "Adrienne Lecouvreur," which is to be filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Miss Pringle, who has just completed a new series of comedy dramas with Lew Cody, is to begin work at once in the new production under direction of Fred Niblo. Dorothy Farnum wrote the scenario.

Joan Crawford plays the leading role as the strolling player who wins the favor of Nils Asther, dashing young member of the royal family.

Chester Conklin in It

That lively young comedian, Chester Conklin, is hard put to it these days to finish one picture character in time to begin another.

Conklin's latest assignment is that of comedian extraordinary to Clara Bow in her new picture, "Three Week Ends," in which it is promised he will have a most congenial role.

Jane Winton Acts in Talkie

Sh! Jane Winton wouldn't have it known for the world, but she has just finished doing a talkie for Movietone, and presumably for Fox. She wouldn't tell us a thing about it, beyond modestly admitting that her voice seemed to be all right for the talkies.

Finis Fox Comes Home

Finis Fox has just returned from the Yosemite where he and his wife spent a most delightful vacation. Finis has started work on the scenario for "Evangeline," the next Edwin Carewe-Dolores Del Rio production for United Artists.

Play for Play Shop

The rush of film players to the stage to get speaking experience in preparation for future talking pictures is especially noticeable in the cast of "Slaughter," an original play of the South Sea Islands, by Kate Clement, current at the Cordova Street Play Shop.

Among the players are Gloria Grey, Ruby Craven, Alyce Richards, Colin Chase, Charles Ramsey, Ray Weiss, Robert Littlefield and Lloyd Taylor.

Rollo Dix and Joy Ainsworth, who are in the production, are stage and vaudeville players, who recently turned their talents to the screen.

WILL DISCOVERY UPSETS ESTATE

Bank Produces Document Long After Death

Deceased's Property Divided as Intestate

Court Holds Up Decision in Unusual Case

Extraordinary circumstances in connection with the $400,000 estate of the late John Detlefs of Huntington Park were revealed yesterday in Judge Beecher's court, when the Security Trust and Savings Bank appeared to petition for special letters of administration.

Detlefs died in 1928. Months ago his estate was distributed to his widow and his daughter, as the property of an intestate person, no will having been found. Now the bank has come forward with a will for probate and a motion for a special administration.

FIRST DEATH NOTICE

Several weeks ago E. E. Wiley, assistant trust officer of the bank, wanted some information from Detlefs. He wrote him a letter, and received a reply from Detlefs's daughter, Mary Detlefs Nelson, telling him that her father was dead. This, Wiley explained, was the first news he had received of Detlefs's death.

"But he had left a will with me, with instructions that I reveal its existence to no one until after his death," he said.

The will was produced and filed for probate. Its terms proved to be a surprise to the widow, Mrs. Sarah Detlefs, and the daughter.

TERMS OF WILL

It leaves to Mrs. Detlefs her half of the community property. As to the daughter, it specifies that she shall receive nothing "under any circumstances." The residue, it provides, shall be left in trust, the income from it to be paid to Mrs.

She Questions Stock She Purchased

Not So Good, Actress Says
Agnes Ayres complains to Dep. Dist. Atty. McIsaac and asks embezzlement action over deal.

Ada B. Coffelt, a friend, for her life, and the principal at her death to be turned over to the Florence Crittenton Home for Girls.

As Mrs. Coffelt has died since the will was executed, the Crittenton Home is represented in the present proceedings. Attorneys Campbell, Nichols and Stoddard appearing for the institution. Attorney Lloyd Moutrie, in behalf of Mrs. Detlefs and her daughter, is opposing probate of the will.

MYSTERY HINTED

Members of the family expressed surprise at the reference in the will to the daughter, Mrs. Nelson. They said they could not imagine any reason for her disinheritance. As to Mrs. Coffelt, no one would say who she was.

Judge Beecher, faced with these unusual conditions, withheld his decision, indicating that he will render it today.

HARBOR BUYS PLACE IN TRADE COUNCIL

Request by the Pacific Foreign Trade Council that the Harbor Department take out ten memberships at $10 each in order to participate in the annual convention to be held in Los Angeles September 18, 19 and 20, was given approval by the Harbor Commission yesterday in the interest of port development. The council includes business men and steamship operators in all ports from British Columbia to the West Coast of Mexico and includes Hawaiian ports.

STOCK DEAL DENOUNCED BY ACTRESS

Agnes Ayres Says Concern Had No Right to Sell Her Securities for $35,000

Charging she had been persuaded to purchase $35,000 worth of questionable stock in a large Southern California corporation when it had not received a permit from the State Commissioner of Corporations to issue stock, Agnes Ayres, motion picture actress, appeared at the District Attorney's office yesterday with her attorney, Roger Marchetti, and asked for an embezzlement complaint.

After a conference with Hugh McIsaac, deputy District Attorney, Miss Ayres left with the understanding that she is to return tomorrow.

Meanwhile, McIsaac announced, he will today question officials of the corporation that sold Miss Ayres her stock, regarding the transaction. When this questioning is completed, McIsaac indicated, he will decide whether or not to issue a complaint.

EXPOSITION TO GIVE DAY FOR BOY SCOUTS

Public concerts will be given beginning at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. by the Los Angeles Boy Scout Band of fifty-five pieces, under leadership of Conductor Philip Menoll. Among many Scout demonstrations will be a competition in fire-by-friction, in an effort to establish a new record.

BREAK ENDS LONG JAUNT TOGETHER

Couple Come to Parting After Twenty-two Years of Married Life

Ralph C. Hoffman and his wife were married at Ottumwa, Iowa, twenty-two years ago. They have two children, Mary Louise, 18, and Oliver Dimmitt, 16. During their married life they have accumulated considerable community property, most of which is in California.

Both went before Superior Judge Needham yesterday, the husband asking for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty and the wife asking for separate maintenance, asserting her husband has ceased to love her and transferred his affections to Mrs. Lora Carleton.

In the husband's complaint he asserts that his wife told officials of a certain bank that she had defrauded her out of the proceeds of a property sale, also that she called up his creditors and told them he would beat them out of their money and then, on top of it all, she hit him with a pair of hedge shears.

In her cross-complaint Mrs. Hoffman asserts that Hoffman deserted her on March 19, 1927; and that much of their trouble is due to his regard for Mrs. Carleton.

CANDY DRIVER TELLS HOLD-UP BY BANDITS

Max Goldberg, driver for the Standard Candy Company of 831 East Sixty-second street, reported to police yesterday that two bandits, operating in an automobile and both armed, had held him up opposite 898 Forty-first street shortly after 2 p.m. and relieved him of $100 in cash. After the hold-up the two men drove east on Forty-first street and were not seen again.

TONE OF STOCK MARKET UNEVEN

Twenty leading rails about 4 1/2 points with no intermediate recession. To day's loss in the averages was about 5-8 of a point for each.

The day's business news was largely favorable to the railroads. Trade reviews continued encouraging in character, and stressed the stiffening price tendency for pig iron. The preliminary report of the American Petroleum Institute showed a decline of 1,841,000 barrels in stocks of crude and refined oil east of the Rocky mountains in July.

The Anaconda Copper Company announced the purchase for cash of the Montana interests of the estate of the late W. A. Clark, except the Montana public utilities.

INDUSTRIALS OFF

When the market turned heavy in the afternoon, selling pressure was most effective against the industrial leaders. United States Steel, after approaching to within 1-4 points of its 1928 high of 154, sold down below 150 for a net loss of more than 2 points. General Motors dropped from an early high of 188 to 181 where it was up 3-4. Allied Chemical, American Can, Atlantic Refining, Johns-Manville, Montgomery-Ward, and Union Carbide closed 1 to 2 1/2 points lower.

Radio regained its old place as a market leader by soaring 5 1/2 points to 192 1/4 and closing 1-4 points under the top. Sears-Roebuck rose up 8 points to a new peak at 147-7-8 and closed within a fraction of the top. National Cash Register touched a new high at 75 on buying in the afternoon, but was later influenced by reports of unusually large current earnings, and prospects of higher dividends before the end of the year. Chief interest in the tobacco group shifted to Elmendorf, which climbed nearly 6 points. Schulte and Tobacco Products lost ground. Express shares developed extreme buoyancy. Rails were featureless.

Foreign exchanges were easier. Sterling cables hovered around $4.85 1/4, or close to the "gold import" point. Bankers pointed out that any further advance in money rates here was likely to cause sufficient recession in sterling to bring gold from London to New York.

Commodity markets were firmer. Wheat advanced more than a cent a bushel on reports of European buying, despite bearish crop news from the Northwest. Cotton rallied only a few cents a bale. Coffee and sugar showed little change.

The first step toward associating Los Angeles with other cities and communities of Southern California in forming the Metropolitan Water District for obtaining Colorado River water was taken yesterday by the City Council.

A resolution introduced by Councilman Hall was adopted which pledges the city to join action with Pasadena and other cities in forming the district and accepting its share of the organization expenses. Los Angeles' share is about $1800.

The next step will be for all cities concerned to bond themselves by vote within sixty days to proceed with the organization of the district and to authorize the district to construct the Colorado River aqueduct to bring water from the river to Southern California. The Metropolitan Water District is being organized in accordance with an act of the State Legislature.

HUNTINGTON DRIVE WORK APPROVED
P. E. Share of Improvement Reduced and Assessments Ordered by Council

After making a revision in the schedule, the City Council yesterday approved assessments for the improvement of Huntington Drive, south.

The revision is an important one, setting up the attitude of the Council on the status of a public utility project as the basis of a public improvement.

It appeared from the arguments of Councilman Jacobson, in whose district the improvement lies, that the Pacific Electric, whose railroad adjoins the improved street, had agreed to pay 25 per cent of the cost of the improvement, not including the sidewalk.

Subsequent to this agreement and after the company's share of the cost had been computed on the basis of the whole cost, the project was allotted a substantial sum by the city and county.

The allotment is deducted from the balance of the cost of the project after the Pacific Electric's share of the cost had been taken out. The company contended that as a taxpayer it was entitled to be relieved of the allotment just as the rest of the taxpayers are. Jacobson contended the company had agreed to pay and should be made to pay 25 per cent of the full cost. The rest of the Council voted against him and for the company.

Harbor Handles More Vessels to Set July Mark
Thirty-nine more vessels were handled by the Harbor Department and pilotage fees were $3018.03 higher in July of this year than for July, 1927, according to the report of the Harbor Commissioner, J. G. Starr, to the Harbor Commission yesterday.

Vessels handled last month totaled 113, with fees of $19,217.25 compared to 107 vessels and $17,299.22 in fees in July of last year, he reported.

Belt Line Railway earnings, however, showed a decline, the total for last month being $9867.71, compared to $10,948.15 for July of 1927.

HIGHWAY PLAN LINKS READY FOR WORKING
Two important links in the major highway plan are ready for acceptance. These are the pavement of San Fernando Road from Burbank to San Fernando, which was constructed at a cost of $432,475, and the piece of the same boulevard from Los Angeles to San Fernando, which cost $204,947.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday cleared away a few minor obstacles to the acceptance of the former.

CARRIERS WILL GAIN SPEED
Lexington and Saratoga Sail for Overhaul and to Have New Equipment Installed

First steps to increase further the speed of the new aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga, already holders of world speed records for both naval and merchant vessels, were taken yesterday, when the Lexington sailed for the Puget Sound Navy yard for overhaul.

Both the Lexington and Saratoga, the carrier beat the previous world's record of the U.S.S. Omaha in steaming from San Francisco to Honolulu in seventy-five hours and forty minutes, in 1924, and the record day's run of 676 nautical miles established in 1911 by the British liner Mauretania.

TRIALS ARRANGED
The Lexington will return here about November 20 and will run a series of trials at Point Vicente. The Saratoga will depart San Pedro September 19 for overhaul at Bremerton and will return here about December 15 to conduct her trials.

The battle fleet, homeward-bound from the summer cruise on Puget Sound, due at San Francisco tomorrow for a week's visit at the Bay City. The armada will depart San Francisco for the San Pedro-San Diego area on the 31st inst., the battleships and train squadron groups, each headed by a general.

Winston and Film Actress Wed Today
Jacqueline Logan, film actress, and Larry Winston, Los Angeles broker, will be married at noon today at the hotel in Agua Caliente with Judge Francisco L. Miranda officiating, with several Hollywood and Los Angeles friends present, dispatches from San Diego disclosed.

The couple declined to discuss a report of their marriage but denied that they were already wed, but it was learned in Tijuana that they expect to apply for a marriage license there this morning, with the wedding probably following at noon.

Efforts were made to keep the wedding plans secret but when the couple arrived at the new resort hotel Monday morning, the marriage was heard. Yesterday afternoon Miss Logan telephoned for her personal maid and evening clothes and the actress in Mexico.

DRAGGING OF POND FAILS IN MYSTERY
Vanishing of Sturdy Woman Remains Puzzle After Intensive Search

The disappearance of Ella Sturdivant, 47 years of age, from the home of her son, F. Earl Sturdivant, 1001 West Palm Avenue, Gardena, yesterday remained as much a mystery as ever after deputy sheriffs spent the day in dragging a pond near Gardena in the belief that she had been drowned. No trace of the body was found.

Capt. Bright, head of the Sheriff's homicide investigation detail, ordered the pond dragged after bloodhounds were ordered to search the pond and in which you participated.

WHITEHEAD MENTIONED
"All of the old gang were there, and in the middle of the festivities Lew Whitehead was given a subpoena to the gang to order. He then told the boys what a wonderful friend of his you had been and his sorrow in not having you present, and proposed a toast to you which was given in a whole-hearted manner."

Sweeney Jury Gets Lecture

Judge Scores Comment on Merits of Case
Accused Man Gives List of Luncheon Guests
Many Men Named Promptly Voice Denials

Women played major roles yesterday in the testimony of E. E. Sweeney, on trial in Superior Judge Yankwich's court on the charge of embezzling nearly $100,000 from the Southern California Gas Company.

One of the women, a hula-hula dancer, was declared by Sweeney to have performed at luncheons given at a downtown hotel, at which liquor was lavishly served, and which were attended by some members of the City Council, department of building and safety, lobbyists and representatives of the gas companies.

Sweeney said that he and O. W. Twitchell, special agent for the Los Angeles Gas and Electric company, were co-hosts at these affairs.

"OTHER WOMAN"
The other woman, according to Dep. Dist. Atty. Dennison, who is prosecuting the case, entered the life of Sweeney during the period of his defalcations and received jewelry and other gifts from him. Dennison yesterday introduced into evidence two endearing notes sent to Sweeney by a woman, who signed herself "Jess" and several snapshots of a woman in various attractive costumes, who was identified by the defendant as Mrs. Jessie Davis of Santa Monica.

The amount in addition to the photographs was taken from Sweeney's desk shortly after his arrest.

That an attempt will be made by the prosecution to show that Mrs. Jessie Davis is the author of the affectionate notes and that she is more than just a casual acquaintance, was indicated by the line of questions Dennison was hurling at the witness at the close of court, and which will be continued today.

AFFECTIONATE NOTE
In one of the notes written on a greeting card "To My Sweetheart" Sweeney is addressed as follows: "To express thanks for the hearty way in which you remembered me on Christmas. Love and kisses, Jess."

In introducing this evidence, Dennison presented to the court twenty-two checks drawn on Donald & Seaman, Inc., jewelers, totaling $4264.75. The amount is in addition to approximately $11,000 which the State contends was spent with Mrs. Sweeney for jewelry.

Comment in the newspapers on the Sweeney case by public officials who have not been involved in the case was not presented in court yesterday by Judge Yankwich in dismissing the jury for the noon recess.

While he mentioned it was apparent that his remarks were intended to reach Mayor or Crier who issued a statement concerning the case Tuesday. Referring to these officials, Judge Yankwich said: "They shall have a better sense than to do such a thing." He then instructed the jurors not to base their opinion on the news of the case.

The papers, pointing out that the accounts in the papers were necessarily brief. "All the facts in the case will be presented in court," he continued, "and it is up to the evidence submitted here that you must arrive at your verdict."

TWITCHELL LETTER
A letter written on July 24, 1928, to Sweeney by O. W. Twitchell, chief special agent for the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company, brought forth the defendant's story about the gay luncheon parties and the work before him. The picture was the same as what they read in the newspapers, pointing out that the accounts in the papers were necessarily brief. "All the facts in the case will be presented in court," he continued, "and it is up to the evidence submitted here that you must arrive at your verdict."

IDEOPHON NOTATION
The inscription on the picture, done in ideograph, says, "Persepolis and Sparrows, which are Sweeney's specialty, perched here and there." The ideograph is of Japanese type. Dr. Scherer, director of the museum, the whole picture must be foreseen from the beginning for on all no mistake can be corrected.

Seko, according to Dr. Scherer, came here in the hope of interpreting the life of his people to the Western world through his art. He believes that this is the way to create a understanding between them.

DEMOCRATS MEET TODAY
Ralph W. Swagler will be the speaker at the Democratic Luncheon Club which meets today noon at the Alexandria. His subject will be "Eight Years of Unfilled Promises."

LOYOLA PLANS FUND DRIVE
Announcement of $5,000,000 Campaign Made at Meeting of Civic Leaders at Biltmore

Definite plans for launching a $5,000,000 endowment and building drive for the new Loyola University were announced yesterday at a luncheon at the Biltmore, where more than 100 local educators and business men gathered to hear the outline of the scheme.

The meeting was conducted by Judge Myers, former chief justice of the Supreme Court of California, and general chairman of the drive. It consisted of a series of short talks by various local business men and an outline of the plan of campaign by Harry Bogart.

Under the plan, which is expected, will obtain $4,000,000 in $100,000 bonds. The plan, which is expected, will obtain $4,000,000 in $100,000 bonds. The plan, which is expected, will obtain $4,000,000 in $100,000 bonds.

INSTITUTE ACQUIRES FINE PAINTING

Officials of the Southwest Museum are indulging in justified pride in that the museum has unexpectedly fallen heir to a painting by Yoshida Sekido, noted Japanese artist.

It happened in this wise: On Tuesday evening at the Grace Nicholson Treasure House, 46 North Los Robles avenue, Pasadena, Prof. Sekido gave an illustrated lecture under the auspices of the Southwest Museum. His platform was arranged in an exact replica of his workshop in Japan. His disciples, two ancient Japanese men whose lives have been devoted to art, stood at his side to hand him brushes, fan his paints and assist him in the accustomed manner, which amounts, virtually, to a ritual.

Ken Nakazawa, assistant custodian of oriental art at the museum, was in attendance to interpret the various movements of the painting and to point out its theme.

NOTABLE SPEED
And there before a group of some 150 persons, alien to him and to his art, Sekido completely lost himself in his concentration on the work before him. The picture was finished in less than two hours, despite the fact that it was painted on silk, which is a very difficult material to use. According to Dr. James A. B. Scherer, director of the museum, the whole picture must be foreseen from the beginning for on all no mistake can be corrected.

EQUIPMENT ESTIMATE FILED BY DEPARTMENT
An estimate by the Harbor Department that it will take $24,985 to provide fixtures and equipment for the department's new quarters on the fourth and fifth floors of the new municipal building at San Francisco was ordered filed by the Harbor Commission yesterday.

FRANCHISE ACTION DELAYED
Council Again Postpones Decision on Southern Pacific Air-Line Railroad

Confirmation of the franchise of the Southern Pacific Company to operate its so-called "air-line" railroad to the Santa Monica bay district, was deferred yesterday by the City Council until September 17. The matter was continued because of no other than to open a street if the city orders it opened.

"You gentlemen ought to know," he said, "that if you want a street opened across our tracks and right of way, all you have to do is to declare it a matter of public necessity and convenience and it must be done, regardless of the railroad's attitude. We have no choice in the matter. So why talk here now, about not granting this renewal of franchise unless there be a 'bargain' on the matter of opening streets across our tracks. When the time comes that you want to open any such street you will do it."

Purveyors of Power Agree

Municipal Board and Edison Company in Accord
City Drops Plan for Steam Plant at Harbor
Suits Withdrawn and Claims Settled by Mediation

The Municipal Board of Water and Power Commissioners and the Southern California Edison Company have compromised their differences and will abandon pending litigation against each other, it became known last evening, following a special meeting of the commissioners with Edison company representatives.

Agreement is credited to the good offices of Herbert J. Goudge, an attorney, who as a citizen acting for the public good and without pay, tried to do so and, in the process, took an opposing view. The company filed two suits on this account.

One of the controversies had to do with whether the board should build a stand-by steam plant to generate electricity. The board wished to do so and the company took an opposing view. The company filed two suits on this account.

BASIS OF SETTLEMENT
"By way of adjustment of these controversies," says an official statement issued jointly by the board and company following the meeting, "the company has agreed to provide and set aside for the service of the city, in lieu of the 25,000 kilowatt plant which it had proposed to construct, one of the 25,000 kilowatt steam units at the company's Long Beach steam plant No. 2, such unit to be leased from the Edison system and to be directly and exclusively connected with the city withdrawn its counter-claims. The city at all times up to full capacity."

"By this means the city will acquire the steam plant service it needs without the investment of $3,500,000 for its own separate plant and also will save operating and maintenance costs of the proposed steam plant amounting to more than $200,000 per year. Pursuant to this understanding, the board has made arrangements for the cancellation of contracts entered into by it some time ago for steam-plant machinery."

Two suits on this account are pending before the California Supreme Court but they are "to rest indefinitely," it was stated.

CLAIMS ADJUSTED
A second controversy between the two parties involved an action by the city to obtain tax moneys from the company and the latter counter-sued to claim peacekeeping efforts. The two have agreed on a company payment of $311,000. The city will have this suit dismissed.

A third controversy had to do with the proper billing of the board for current bought of the company. It involved two suits. The company sought some $200,000 on this account. The board admitted $200,000 of the claim from the outset and now admits the remaining $200,000 which it had contested. The company drops its suits and the city withdraws its counter-claims.

These settlements as to this item involve past matters," says the joint statement, "it also removes a possible element of friction in respect to future billing for electric energy."

MEDIATOR PRAISED
The official statement formally praises Goudge as follows: "Both parties give credit for the settlement to the mediation efforts carried on for several months by Attorney Herbert J. Goudge, acting in the capacity of a citizen and without pay, who endeavored to bring about a settlement of the controversy and to remove a possible element of friction in respect to future billing for electric energy."

R. H. Ballard, president of the Edison company, expressed his satisfaction with the settlement, saying: "The amicable adjustment of these points of dispute is the best interest of all concerned and opens the way for immediately adding to the power resources of Los Angeles. It is a very timely and successful result of the way the company will start at once on the construction of an additional 125,000-horsepower generating plant at Pasadena, similar to the one just completed."

Harry Carr

HAVE lived through a lot of Presidential campaigns; but no other incident in any one of them was as charming as Herbert Hoover's speech to his boyhood friends in West Branch, Iowa.

His speech of acceptance was a notable campaign effort; his talk with his old school-teacher and the boys he used to know at the swimming hole was relaxed and intimate. There was in it very little of political intent; and the result is the greatest vote-getting speech that has been made in this campaign—or is likely to be. Some of the greatest successes in this world have been won by men who weren't trying very hard.

OH! SUCH A PLOT!
The movie-plot writers must blush for shame when they read the dispatches from Mexico retelling alleged plots about young ladies conspiring to stick poison pins into august celebrities of that unhappy land.

The only way I can account for these pipe dreams is that some of the amateur detectives who hunted down spies in Los Angeles during the World War must have moved down to Mexico.

The official designation of this department to which these experts in melodrama belonged during the war was "The Military Intelligence Division." Which shows that even war has its funnybones.

GLORIOUS TRADITIONS
In the end they will probably name both Sunset and Hollywood Boulevard after some newly arrived really dealer, as they did Robertson Boulevard.

MAY SUTTON BUNDY
It looks as though they might as well hand over the tennis cups to one branch or another of the Sutton family and save the agony and struggle. Between May Sutton Bundy and her nephews and sisters and niece the other tennis stars might as well hand them the dishes and have done with it. A mamma in the forties, with four children, Mrs. Bundy is on the eastern courts mopping up the sweat with her mighty racket.

What makes her a great tennis player is a lightning hand. You can't lick her. They say when you put two hours into a cage they glare at each other for a minute; then one meekly folds into a corner and takes the second-best best bones from that point on. Mrs. Bundy is not the one who meekly folds for the corner.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN
The Texas people have purified Uncle Tom's Cabin, after all these years, by making Simon Legree a Yankee.

There will be no protest from the Yankees. We are the only folks in the world who are perfectly content to be villains in all the pieces.

The Italians long since struck the Mexicans won't be mean guys any more; even the Turks and the Chinese have followed the example of the Irish in insisting upon being noble.

WE ARE B-A-A-D! GR-E-E-N
From now on we are the wretches who kick over the furniture in trying to kiss the blonde young lady while the cavalry gallops to the rescue; we are the spys, the guys who kick the dogs, beat the children, rob the banks and stick poisoned pins into Mexican generals. I suppose we may as well glory in our iniquity. Gosh, somebody's got to be wicked in our dramas—or what would bring trembling tears to the starry orbs of the little Eva?

A total of 1754 pounds of record for westbound mail into this city, the company announced. In the thirty-seven pouches which made up the greater portion of the

Drugs Worth $5000 Taken

Capture Expected to Curtail
Narcotic Distribution
Police and Federal Agents
Co-operate in Case

Confiscation of $5000 worth of morphine and cocaine and the curtailment of the distribution of these narcotics among local Mexican, Chinese and negro residents was announced yesterday by Captain of Detectives Seager with the arrest of Len Wong, 55 years of age.
Wong, said by Seager to have a record of former arrests for peddling dope, was taken in custody at his home at 723 1-2 China Alley, Oxnard. The narcotics were found in his possession there, according to Seager. Detective Lieutenant Yokum and Mathews of the police narcotic detail and Federal Agents Hansen and Wellner assisted in the arrest.
The arrest of the elderly Chinese was the result, according to Seager, of thirty days' constant investigation. It was known here, Seager stated, that approximately fifteen "runners" were bringing in small quantities of morphine and cocaine from some place north of this city. The drug, Seager said, was sold only to persons of the foregoing nationalities. In the hope of locating the source of the supply the local police refrained from arresting several of these users of the drugs, but, instead, maintained a constant vigilance with the purpose of "spotting" one of the runners and trailing him to the headquarters of the asserted leader of the gang. This was finally accomplished, said Seager, with Wong's arrest.

period by the United Artists.
Miss Rico, who as Enriqueta Val-

Mexico City last year, owes her employment to the grace of her hands.
Ernest Lubitch was looking for a girl with beautiful hands. One day he happened to spy Miss Rico's slender sulted. Because she is a minor it was necessary for Judge Hahn to

EMPLOYMENT SUIT OPENS
Former City Worker Seeks to Compel Board to Reinstate Him on Pay Roll

Hearing of the suit of W. B. Collier brought to compel the Department of Public Works of the City of Los Angeles to reinstate him as machinist foreman in the mechanical division of the department under the rules of civil service, was begun yesterday before Superior Judge Van Zante.

The action, which was brought in the shape of a petition for a writ of mandate, followed Collier's dismissal from the service of the department on the grounds of "lack of work."

Collier asserts that he was employed by the Board of Public Works on June 5, 1926, under the rules of civil service; that on February 28, last, he received a notice from J. V. Ainsworth, member of the board, his services would not be required after March 1, until further notice, due to "slackness of work."

The order of the Civil Service Commission was ignored, according to Collier, which action, he asserts, was unlawful. Collier now asks that the court compel the Board of Public Works to restore him to his position.

Further, that he would be allowed two weeks' vacation with pay. That on March 15 he received notice his services would be terminated entirely "due to lack of work."

The plaintiff further asserts that he notified the Board of Civil Service Commissioners of his layoff, that the board investigated, found there was no slackness of work and ordered him restored to duty.

Absorbs Sunburned, Freckled Skin

To remove tan, sunburn, liver spots, pimples, large pores, etc., it is best to peel off the skin itself with pure mercuric acid. Purchase an ounce at any drug store and use as directed. The acid absorbs the thin outer skin gently but surely removing every trace of the freckled, reddened or blemished mark. The under skin is then revealed smooth and velvety-soft, with a delicate peach-like bloom. Mercuric acid brings out the hidden beauty. To quickly remove wrinkles and restore facial contour, use as an astringent 1 ounce powdered mercuric acid and 1 half pint witch-hazel—(Advertisement).

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

In the lovely Little Church of the Flowers, last Sunday morning, two marriages of interest to large groups of Southern Californians were solemnized.

The first, taking place at 8:30 a.m., was that of Miss Peggy Millington Skinner, daughter of Mrs. S. L. Elder of 2821 Walton avenue, and Charles Forbes, Jr., Rev. Philip Kemp of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Glendale officiated, and the ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother for the bridal party, relatives and a few intimate friends.

Crowned in old ivory silk lace over tulle, her mother's wedding dress of twenty-one years ago, the bride was especially charming. Her tulle veil was caught into a head-dress of orange blossoms, and she carried white roses and white sweet peas in a shower bouquet. Her sister, Miss Mildred Skinner, maid of honor, wore a soft, draped, pale pink tulle over tulle, trimmed in French blue velvet, with which she wore a large pink picture hat and carried pastel-shaded roses and sweet peas. The two bridesmaids, Miss Louise Freeman and Miss Dora Forbes, sister of the bridegroom, wore in orchid and green frocks similar to that of the maid of honor, and they wore the large hats and carried bouquets to harmonize. Little Katherine Mihos was flower girl in an orchid tulle frock, while her tiny brother, James Mihos, was ring bearer.

Mr. Forbes chose for his best man Albert Kramer, Robert Barba and Antonio Zaboy being the ushers. Mrs. Lillian Carter, soloist, provided a program of music for the ceremony, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Madeline McClanahan. After a honeymoon at Catalina Island, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes will make their home in Los Angeles.

At 11:30 occurred the wedding of Miss Margaret Barnhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnhill of 1182 Oak Grove avenue, and Joseph Harbuck of 1316 Hepler avenue, with Rev. John A. Hubbard officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin-backed crepe, made with pointed full-length cape-panel in the back, a soft drapery at the front being caught with a diamond circlet. A small hat of white velvet and flowers, and shower bouquet of white rose buds and lilies of the valley completed the dainty ensemble.

The only attendant of the bride was Mrs. George Adams, who was gowned in apple green crepe with hat and shoes to match. She carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas and ferns. Robin Sterling served Mr. Harbuck's best man, with George Adams and Fred Barnhill, brother of the bride, assisting as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were married just a year ago, also at the Little Church of the Flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harbuck are now enjoying a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, and will make their home at 1154 Oak Grove avenue after their return.

boxes for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Uhl, Assemblyman and Mr. Walter J. Little, Mrs. A. V. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Voddien, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klien and Mrs. Max Thomashefsky.

Home from Honolulu

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sharpe Cheney of South Norton avenue have returned from a sojourn at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu. During their visit they were entertained at a reception given for them by Miss Ruth Lister Yapp, daughter of one of the leading Chinese bankers in Honolulu, another honor being the Baroness Von Scharfberg, well-known Berlin pianist, who delighted the guests during the affair with several selections.

To Meet Conductor

Invitations were in the mail today for a reception with which the Macdonald Club of Allied Arts is entertaining from 4 to 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the 28th inst., in honor of Eugene Goossens, conductor for this week and next at the Hollywood Bowl. # FERRY PROTEST FILED BY BOARD

Harbor Commission Listens to Kossin's Arguments

San Pedro Commuter Asks
for Bridge Instead

Tube Also Suggested as Way
Out of Traffic

Protest against the Harbor Department's proposed $750,000 for a municipal ferry between San Pedro and East San Pedro and citation of grounds therefor, including that it would be a menace and danger to shipping in the 1000-foot channel, was read to the Harbor Commission yesterday by Secretary Rouse and ordered filed along with the petitions from harbor organizations in favor of the ferry.

The communication, already brought to the attention of the City Council, was from Edward Kossin of 381 West Eleventh street, San Pedro, who described himself as having been for thirty-five years in the operating department of railroads and steamships and a commuter for twenty years on ferries now operated between San Pedro and East San Pedro.

TOO MUCH MONEY

He declares that $750,000 is too large a sum to be spent on a ferry and that, instead of expending traffic, it would take longer to load and discharge vehicles and passengers. Instead of a ferry, he suggests that a high bridge from the bluff at Tenth street, San Pedro, where there is room for a long ramp, be built to East San Pedro, or that a tube or tunnel be placed under the channel, if a high bridge is impracticable. Cost to the taxpayer could be relieved, he holds, by charging 10 cents for loaded trucks, 5 cents for vehicles and 1 cent each for pedestrians using the tunnel.

OPINION WANTED

Further, he cites that there is no connection at San Pedro with the coast highway and a high bridge or tube would give the community connection with East San Pedro, Terminal Island, and would relieve traffic congestion on Harbor Boulevard and connect with Long Beach. Kossin also suggests a tube under the entrance to the harbor, to connect San Pedro with Wilmington and Los Angeles and relieve traffic around the West Basin.

He asked that a board of engineers be requested to pass on the proposals.

Testimony Hits Masseur as to Woman's Death

Charlotte M. Ricks pointed out Louis Von Frohner, Danish masseur, as the man who performed the illegal operation shortly before her death, according to Detective Lieutenant F. L. James, whose testimony yesterday was the principal factor which caused Municipal Judge Sheldon to order Von Frohner held without bail to await trial for murder by Superior Court. James also declared that when first arrested Von Frohner admitted performing the operation, which now he denies. Detective Lieutenant Bert Jones corroborated James's statements.

Von Frohner was arrested on the murder charge following Mrs. Ricks's death on complaint of her husband, Allan Ricks, commercial artist, 1720 South Harvard Boulevard.

BANDITS LOCK UP OIL-STATION MAN

Neil Fleishman, who operates a service station on Wilmington Road, between Wilmington and San Pedro, was locked in the station rest room by two youthful bandits last night and forced to remain there for two hours until past midnight, when he was released after the bandits had broken open the cash register, apparently with ease, and departed with its contents, $20.

How Schoolteacher Gained 18 Pounds and New Energy

"I am a public school instructor," writes Mr. Linus L. Clark, "and from my study I was convinced that Ironized Yeast was exactly what I needed to put me in shape. I took only two bottles and gained 18 lbs. More than that, Ironized Yeast brought more energy, greater endurance and an improved complexion. You can believe letters like this. Thousands who were doubtful at first wrote their gainers 16 to 20 pounds often in 3 weeks. 'Skinny' limbs changed to graceful roundness. Skin cleared. Tired feeling vanished. Only when Yeast is ironized is it more effective—for iron is needed to bring out the weight-building and strengthening values of Yeast. Pleasant tablets in a handy bottle. Safe for everybody. Never cause gas or bloating, no harmful drugs. Go to any drugstore today and get a full size treatment of Ironized Yeast. If after this generous trial you are not delighted, money back. # ATTAINING MAJORITY WELCOMED

Girl Then Named by Court to Administer Estate of Friend and Finish Deal

Viola H. Nilson became 21 years of age yesterday, and thus legally qualified to do a lot of things from which she was barred day before yesterday.

Among the functions for which she became eligible is that of serving as administrator of an estate. She was no sooner eligible than functioning.

Judge Becher of the Superior Court yesterday appointed her administratrix of the estate of Marie A. Fleming, her friend. Just before Miss Fleming's death she had started a real-estate transaction. She left no will. The other parties to the transaction were anxious to conclude it, but there was no one to sign Miss Fleming's name. Miss Nilson said she would serve as administratrix, but at the time she was under age, so the proceedings had to be postponed until she attained her majority.

Buried Alive, Worker Saved

G. E. Wolfe, 33 years of age, residing at 7034 Pacoma Boulevard, was buried alive for almost half an hour yesterday, when the walls of an excavation for the foundation of the new Helman Hardware Building at 747 South Main street caved in on him as he was working.

Wolfe was engaged in putting up frames for the pouring of the concrete foundation and was employed by the J. V. McNeill Company of 5800 Avalon Boulevard. He was taken to the Methodist Hospital at Georgia-street hospital by Police Surgeon Sebastian. He was found to have suffered painful bruises but no broken bones.

BAD CONSCIENCE AT EASE NOW

Woman Did Washing in Hotel
Years Ago Against Rules
So She Pays "Bill"

The old saw about cleanliness and godliness going hand in hand was proved yesterday to the satisfaction of the Hotel Rosslyn management, although the godliness in the form of a restless conscience, didn't get in its full work for four years. The management received the following letter:

Four years ago when we were at your hotel I saw that the rules said 'no washing and ironing allowed.' But I washed some handkerchiefs and a few things, perhaps a union suit, but mostly rags. I suppose I used fifteen cents worth of water so I am sending four times that amount (60 cents in stamps). I don't want to feel that I have done wrong and want to make restitution. (Signed)

POLITICS THE WATCHMAN

Trend of Political Thought and Action

Recognition of his ability as a financier shown by his share in the direction of the business affairs of Los Angeles county, is contained in the announcement that Chairman McClellan of the Board of Supervisors has been added to the directorate of the newly completed merger of the National City Bank with the California Bank.

In commenting on the appointment of Mr. McClellan to the bank's executive board, President Chaffey of the California Bank, said that he has been impressed greatly with the skillful handling of the county's finances during the time Mr. McClellan has served as chairman of the board.

Mr. Chaffey called attention to the fact that in the report of State Comptroller Riley, Los Angeles county is listed as having the lowest rate of any county in California, the low rate of $1.12 being maintained despite the continuance of a great improvement program through which a number of roads have been constructed, schools and hospitals built and various sanitation projects completed, all of which huge expenditures for public welfare.

Assemblyman Baum yesterday received the following letter from Representative Evans of the Ninth District, who is in Tennessee, directing the Hoover campaign in that State:

Campaigning in Tennessee is unlike campaigning in California, where it is largely one way politically. There is not one Republican newspaper in the State. There are scores of Democratic dailies.

"To find myself back on the south side of the Mason and Dixon Line, trying to do Republican politics, makes me feel that I have turned back the wheels of time about eighty years to the time when as a tuckianian into voting the Republican ticket—and I find that it is not so hard to do after all in this present campaign. I find many of the old southerners warming up for Mr. Hoover, on whom they look not as a partisan, but as a great American with a vision broad enough to see and recognize the needs of America, and that without regard to sectional interests."

"He will get thousands of Democratic votes in Tennessee, and I think will carry the State if the Republicans will be fair and do their part."

Assemblyman Baum himself is a candidate for re-election in the Sixty-fourth District. He has been most of his time, however, to efforts in behalf of the Republican ticket of Hoover and Curtis, and has been directing the campaign of Representative Evans while the Glendale Representative has been absent.

Assemblyman Scofield who is a candidate to succeed himself in the Sixty-ninth District, is introducing to those who have watched his work for the past four years as a member of the Assembly, the Republican ticket of Hoover and Curtis, and has been directing the campaign of Representative Evans while the Glendale Representative has been absent.

The officers of the club are Mrs. C. E. Whitehead, president; Mrs. May E. Hampton, first vice-president; Mrs. S. W. Whitehead, second vice-president; Mrs. Miriam Nichols, Mrs. Joanna Girard, Mrs. Thelma Leher and Mrs. C. Milligan and Mrs. S. W. Whitehead.

A group of public-spirited citizens, working in unison, has introduced the following slate: District Attorney, Buron Fitts; Supervisor, Second District, J. H. Bean; Fourth District, Henry W. Wright; Judge of the Superior Court, Edwin F. Edmonds; William C. Doran, Douglas L. Edmonds, Chester Bower, Daniel Beecher, Myron Westover, William T. Aggeler and Emmet Wilson.

These candidates are recommended by J. C. Porter, F. H. Ballinger, H. H. Koenig, A. J. Nelms, Dr. Allan M. Wilkinson, Clark Dille, C. D. Perrin, Leroy H. Cleville, W. C. Stockdale, Dr. A. F. Hamman, Dr. Henry F. Miller, Dr. J. P. Spencer, Fred Pardee, Otto R. Benedict, C. C. Aurand.

At a dinner held in honor of Municipal Judge Westover Tuesday night by the alumni of the University of Southern California, the judge was presented with an engraved testimonial from his former students.

Assemblyman Little from the Sixty-second District, and candidate for re-election, has been notified of his endorsement by the Young Men's Republican League of Los Angeles county.

Mr. Little has been endorsed by almost every official organization in his district, including the County Executive Committee and the United Veterans of the Republic.

William May Garland, chairman of the "X Olympiad" for Los Angeles in 1932, this week cabled the following message to Southern California from Amsterdam:

"The year 1932 will mark for Los Angeles and all of California the crowning year in a century of progress with the Tenth Olympic Games. This event will bring 1,000,000 visitors to Southern California alone and the fame of our community will be spread before the world."

An important feature of the California Primaries on August 28 in connection with the biggest success of the "Tenth Olympiad" is the re-election of Clay Woolwine to the Assembly from the Sixty-third District. Woolwine championed the State aid measure through the Legislature and for the two years will be Los Angeles' champion there in everything in connection with the success of this great undertaking. His re-election will be an endorsement of a united support for the Olympic Games."

TRIO MAKES NOT GUILTY THEFT PLEA

Wickersham and His Two Companions Not Yet Able to Raise $50,000 Bail

Plea of not guilty to grand jury indictments charging grand theft and conspiracy to commit grand theft were entered before Judge Edmonds yesterday afternoon by Sam Wickersham, James McNairy and John S. Fisher. The court then fixed September 17, next, as the date for trial. All of the men are in the County Jail in default of $50,000 bail. Wickersham pleaded to five counts, while the other two answered to four each.

Wickersham, together with the other two men, was taken into custody about two weeks ago and later indicted on charges of having swindled Mrs. Frank E. Neumann, an aged widow, out of about $100,000. The money was obtained by the three men, according to the testimony presented against them, by a series of "business" deals, which involved an asserted gold mine, a proposed lens factory and a bankers' holding company.

Yesterday Wickersham was represented by Paul Schenck and the other two defendants by Joseph Ryan. Judge Edmonds overruled a demurrer presented by Mr. Schenck aimed at the indictments against Wickersham, and then refused to allow a bail reduction until he could go into the merits of the case with the District Attorney. The matter of bail will come up again today.

LARGE SUM WON BY GIRL IN BABY SUIT

Judgment of $50,000
Against Doctor Echo of
Hollywood Hill Trysts

Iris Stafford, who says Dr. Charles M. Bellows is the father of her 2-year-old daughter, was awarded judgment against him in the sum of $50,000 yesterday, by the jury in Judge Schauer's court that for a week had heard her story, and Dr. Bellows's counter-charge.

It was a story of trysts in the hills of Hollywood, and of the deception of a 17-year-old girl as Miss Stafford told it. As Dr. Bellows related it, it was a tale of misplaced confidence and attempted extortion. The jury found for the girl, after considering the case four hours.

Miss Stafford said that she became engaged to Dr. Bellows when she was but 17. He was a doctor of the child was in court during part of the trial. It is a matter of record that she caused one miscarriage of the child after a jury had been selected the child came into the courtroom wearing shell-rimmed spectacles, much like those worn by Dr. Bellows.

She declared that it was an attempt to influence the jury into thinking the child looked like him, and this was done by the one who rendered the verdict yesterday being the second one drawn.

JURY FINDS TEMPLE TO BE GUILTY

Verdict of Manslaughter Returned in Shooting to Death of Father-in-Law

Guilty of manslaughter was the verdict rendered by a jury against Harmon Temple at 9:35 o'clock last night in Superior Judge Bowron's court after six hours of deliberation. Temple was charged with the shooting to death of his father-in-law, G. W. Wright, at the former's home on Signal Hill, June 30.

Deputy District Attorney Clarke, who prosecuted the case, argued yesterday afternoon for a verdict of manslaughter. He said that Temple was a shot gun and clubbed him with the weapon as he staggered out of the house. Family difficulties caused the affair, testimony showed.

Self-defense was Temple's plea when he took the witness stand. He stated he believed his father-in-law was armed at the time he came to the Temple home. The defendant's wife also testified the believed her father was armed.

Sentence will be pronounced today at 9 a.m. by Judge Bowron. A manslaughter charge carries a sentence of from one to ten years in the State penitentiary.

TOM MIX'S TRIAL DATE DOCKETED

Film Actor on 30th Inst.
Will Face Two Charges of
Battery on Morrisseys

Tom Mix, film actor, will be tried on the 30th inst. on the two charges of battery asserted by Mildred Miller Morrissey, to have been committed by him upon her and her husband, Will Morrissey, early last Sunday at a party at the home of George Beban, film actor, in Pasadena. The date yesterday, when Mix, accompanied by his two attorneys, R. D. Knickerbocker and Milton Cohen, appeared before him.

Mrs. Morrissey, who was to be tried on a drunk charge yesterday before Judge Bullock, will be tried this afternoon, the case being continued yesterday by stipulation of her attorneys and the prosecutor. Morrissey is to be tried on a drunk charge this morning before Judge Gray, but his attorney, Charles Cradick, yesterday indicated that he will ask for a continuance, as he does not believe that the song-and-dance man will be able to appear in court. Cradick declared that he is still in bed as a result of the beating sustained at the hands of Mix.

Since halitosis never announces itself to the victim, you simply cannot know when you have it.

It is impossible for you to tell when you have halitosis. It never announces itself to you.

The one way to be sure of not having it is to rinse the mouth systematically every day with Listerine—especially before meeting others.

Listerine immediately checks halitosis because it is a powerful deodorant. Even vigorous odors like that of onion and ham yield to it.

Keep a bottle handy in home and office. Use it every day. It puts you on the polite, popular and profitable side.
